

Introduction

This annual report, covering the twelve months from January to December 2003, is the second one, following the report of 1999-2002 published by the Chinese Medicine Council of Hong Kong (the council). Through this publication, the council aims to keep members of the profession, as well as the general public, better informed of its functions, its work over the year, and its future direction.

This report is intended for general information only and certain functions of the council have accordingly been simplified and / or presented in the form of an information document. If readers are interested in more specific details of relevant statutory functions of the council and its subsidiary bodies, they should refer to the provisions under the Chinese Medicine Ordinance, Cap 549 of the Laws of Hong Kong, and its subsidiary legislation.
