

During the past 11 years of regulatory work by the Council and the implementation of the Chinese Medicine Ordinance, the achievements are evident. On behalf of the Chinese Medicine Council, I would like take this opportunity to express our thanks to the State Administration of Traditional Chinese Medicine, the State Food and Drug Administration of the People's Republic of China, the Food and Health Bureau and the Department of Health of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region; other policy bureaux and departments; the Hospital Authority; universities and institutions that provide courses in Chinese medicine; CMP associations, Chinese medicines traders associations, Chinese medicine profession, all former and current members of the Council and its boards and committees, as well as the staff of the Council Secretariat, for their dedicated support and efforts in implementing the regulatory work in Chinese medicine over the past years.

Professor CHAN Chi-fai, Andrew, SBS, JP
Chairman,
Chinese Medicine Council of Hong Kong

Introduction

This annual report, covering the twelve months up to 31 December 2011, is the tenth one published by the Chinese Medicine Council of Hong Kong (the Council). Through this publication, the Council aims to keep members of the profession, as well as the general public, better informed of the functions, work and future direction of the Council.

It should be noted that this report is intended for general information only and certain functions of the Council have accordingly been simplified and/or presented in form of an information document. If readers are interested in reading more specific details of relevant statutory functions of the Council and/or its subsidiary bodies, they may refer to the provisions under the Chinese Medicine Ordinance, Cap 549 of the Laws of Hong Kong and subsidiary legislations.
